Footnotes

CHOP SPATS broke well from the outside to stalk the early pace, gained command entering the second turn, opened a clear margin entering the drive and was well clear late under steady urging. DIVINE DANCER up close early while inside rivals, dropped back up the backstretch, responded entering the second turn and finished well. CAFE NOIR well placed from the inside, crept closer entering the second turn, made a bid but flattened out late. DROP THE KID unprepared at the start, steadily advanced outside up the backstretch, made a bid but faltered in the drive. FORM could only pass tired ones. PAT'S BOY broke well from the outside to set the early pace and gave way. EL KEKO had a steady fade.
