SEATTLE SMOOTH was reserved inside early when in a bit tight, bid to contention after half a mile, angled out rallying into the stretch, collared the pacesetter and drew away. PROUD SPELL pursued the pace between foes, angled wide finding room into the lane, was bumped from the inside and rallied while no threat to the winner. COLOR ME UP set a slow pace under good rating, led to near midstretch, battled gamely when challenged by the winner then yielded. BY THE LIGHT pursued the pacesetter outside, bumped with Proud Spell while weakening at the top of the lane and faltered. PICKER raced off the pace while four wide and began retreating on the final turn. MILLION DOLLAR RUN broke a step slowly, moved very wide on the first turn, angled inside but was no factor.
